Cape Cod Community College

Twenty-Seventh Commencement

Tuesday, June Sixth
at Seven O'clock
Nineteen Hundred Eighty-Nine

The community is our campus ... the citizenry is our student body

Cape Cod Community College, founded in 1961, is a publicly supported, post-secondary institution offering many different programs and services. While fostering excellence and opportunities to all citizens through high standards and an open-door admissions policy, the highly qualified faculty and staff provide a supportive, humanistic medium in which to learn.

Maintaining its commitment to excellence, the College carries out its duties as a leader by contributing richly to our region's intellectual, educational, cultural, environmental, and economic development.

The College aims to awaken individuals' abilities so that they may lead richer lives, do their best in their chosen career and be good citizens of their community and country. To those ends, within its charter, the College is open to individuals of all ages, as well as organizations, businesses, and public institutions. We serve:

- people who want two years of college, planning on transfer to four-year schools;
- people who want career opportunities leading to degrees or certificates and employment in a chosen field;
- people of all ages desiring enrichment of their personal, cultural, and recreational lives;
- people who want or need study abroad, for personal, educational, or business reasons, through the College Consortium of International Studies, of which the College is a member;
- companies, agencies and community groups needing help in offering their employees or members educational, personal enrichment, and community development services;
- and those who need improvement in basic skills and/or literacy to ensure their successful attainment of their educational and career goals.

The success of the College has always depended upon its reputation for excellence among its audience, the people of the area. Thus the College truly belongs to the people it serves and who support it, and it must respond to individual and community needs.

The Academic Procession and Regalia

Traditional commencement academic procession and regalia date back to the Middle Ages. Voluminous gowns were worn to ward off the damp and cold of medieval buildings; mortar boards were used as hats. When those styles were abandoned by laymen, clergy and scholars continued to wear the robes, with variations in style and color identifying different monastic orders. The bachelor, master, and doctor gowns differ stylistically in cut and decorative motif.

Today the hood is especially important in identifying the academic achievements of its wearer. Originally, the hoods were worn over the head. A long tassel is attached to the middle point of the top of the cap to drape over the edge of the mortar board. Tassels may be black, gold, or a color appropriate to the academic field of the wearer. The colors of the hood lining indicate the institution granting the degree. The width of the velvet trim indicates the highest degree held; the color of the trim indicates the field of study.

An intercollegiate code representing different departments of learning has set the standards for academic dress in the United States. The colors are assigned as follows:

Agriculture	Maize	Medicine	Green
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White	Music	Pink
Business Administration	Drab	Nursing	Apricot
Dentistry	Lilac	Oratory	Silver Gray
Economics	Copper	Pharmacy	Olive Green
Education	Light Blue	Philosophy	Dark Blue
Engineering	Orange	Physical Education	Sage Green
Fine Arts	Brown	Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Forestry	Russet	Public Health	Salmon Pink
Home Economics	Maroon	Science	Gold-Yellow
Journalism	Crimson	Social Science	Citron
Law	Purple	Theology or Divinity	Scarlet
Library Science	Lemon	Veterinary Science	Gray

The office of mace bearer is purely ceremonial. It derives from medieval times in England when an official was taking office or opening his court and needed a bodyguard. Then the mace, a formidable weapon, was held ready to protect the person of the dignity.

From the sixteenth century in England and since colonial days in America, it has become a symbol of office only, and is carried by a distinguished member of the faculty. The mace bearer, who immediately precedes the president both entering and leaving the ceremony, while often not included in today's exercises, remains popular on the older campuses in the East.

At Cape Cod Community College, the academic regalia of the Board of Trustees correspond to doctoral caps and gowns with gold tassels; the colorful hoods lined with red display the College colors of silver and blue. Faculty robes signify the wearer's respective university and discipline. The mace, a gift of the Class of 1984, is borne by the Grand Marshal who leads the academic procession.

Invocation and Benediction

The Reverend Harold F. Cooper is a native of Worcester, Massachusetts, graduate of the University of Massachusetts, Amherst and the Andover Newton Theological School. He has been the Minister of the West Yarmouth Congregational Church since 1981. He has also been a member of the teaching staff at Cape Cod Community College from 1971 - 1976, when he left to join the staff of Randolph-Macon College in Virginia. Presently he is a member of the Board of Directors of the Cape Cod Times Needy Fund, Board of Directors of the Lower Cape Human Services, Vice-Moderator of the Barnstable Association of the United Church of Christ, and works in the Pastoral Services Department of the Cape Cod Council of Churches. He is married and the father of two children.

Addresses to the Graduates

John D. Crowninshield, president of the Student Senate, has provided enthusiastic leadership to the students of Cape Cod Community College. He has been an effective spokesman and leader for the Statewide community college campaign to ensure adequate funding for public higher education. In addition to serving on various College committees, he has assisted disadvantaged students as a tutor in the Academic Development Center, helped raise money for the Alumni Association, March of Dimes and American Cancer Society, and assisted in organizing the blood drives for the American Red Cross. He has been accepted by the University of Alaska, Fairbanks, to continue his studies in business administration.

Martha Smith Eames, the chaplain at the Masonic Home and Hospital in Wallingford, Connecticut, is a 1981 Cape Cod Community College graduate. A single parent, she starting taking college courses in our continuing education program in 1974, and in the fall of 1980, she became a full-time student for one year to complete her degree. Ms. Eames was a high honors student at Cape Cod. She entered Smith College in the Ada Comstock Scholars Program, which is specifically for women whose education has been postponed or interrupted, graduated magna cum laude, and then went on to earn a masters degree from Yale Divinity School in 1988. The three specialties of her ministry are: Ministry with the Aging, Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders (patients and families), and with AIDS patients and families. She is president of the Executive Board, the New England Region, of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). In September, Reverend Eames will be returning to her home in Dennis.

Music for the Graduates

Historically, pipers have led troops into battle; today colorful inspirational sounds provide pageantry at a college commencement ceremony. Participants tonight are the Highland Light Scottish Pipe Band of Cape Cod -- pipes and tenor, base and side drums. They are attired in quasi-military garb. This Band has been playing on Cape Cod for about thirteen years.

As a field, however fertile, cannot be fruitful without cultivation, neither can a mind without learning.
